

BTS Subscriptions Discount System

(for applicants joining late in the subscription year)

The following information taken from the BTS Constitution details the applicable discounts to membership applications received at certain points of the year.

The BTS discount system works as follows:

- Members whose membership is approved and commences between 1st January and 30th June (both dates inclusive) in any calendar year shall be liable to pay one year's subscription. This payment will entitle them to membership until 31st December in the same calendar year.
- Members whose membership is approved and commences between 1st July and 30th September (both dates inclusive) in any calendar year shall be liable to pay one-half of the appropriate rate of annual subscription. This payment will entitle them to membership until 31st December in the same calendar year.
- The membership of those persons who apply between 1st October and 31st December in any calendar year and which is approved between 1st October and 31st December in that calendar year shall be deferred until 1st January in the following calendar year. Such members shall be liable to pay one year's subscription, which will entitle them to membership until 31st December in the calendar year following their application and acceptance.
